A stunning example of new age inner-city living, this street facing townhouse delivers affordable, modern day comfort and convenience. Cleverly designed to promote low maintenance living, that contains a wide entry foyer, two double bedrooms with B.I.R, fully equipped bathroom, private courtyard and European laundry. Heading upstairs, you are greeted by the large open living area, complete with gourmet kitchen which has been finished with Caesarstone bench tops, designer tapware and stainless steel appliances. The gorgeous hardwood floors lead out onto the undercover entertainer's balcony whilst the property is further complemented with split system air conditioning, off street parking and mature gardens adding to the property's appeal which is superbly placed in the
